Farm Family

Simpson View Farm is located in Corinna Maine and has been owned and operated by the Simpson Family since the early 1900's. The farm is currently owned and operated by Ronald and his wife Julie along with his three children, Sarrah, Samantha and Rj.

When Ron took over the farm in 1982 there were only 39 milking cows on the farm and approximately 50 young stock. Over the years Ron with the help of his Herdsman Andrew Ricker have taken major steps to expand the farm and become the large dairy that it is today.

Currently there are 825 cows milking and 700 young stock. Over the past few years they have started registering all of the calves to which now 75% of the herd is registered holsteins. Simpson View Farm ships over 60,000 lbs of milk to Oakhurst dairy everyday which makes them one of the largest producers for the Maine Dairy. For the past 15 years the farms crops have been custom grown and harvested by fellowfarmer Roger Whitney. Ron still takes care of the dry hay along with his son Rj and help from friends.

Dedication Ralph "Eddy" Lewis

Eddy has been a member of the Fair Association for over 20 years. He goes about his business doing painting, cleaning out the goat and sheep pens without being asked. When he sees things that need to be done and takes it upon himself to do it. Including but not limited to weed wacking and mowing around all the animal buildings. Always maintaining the fire extinguishers in all the fair buildings. Always working to maintain the exhibition halls after the auction and fair. Eddy is on the fire dept and the Kiwanis also which shows that he is a true volunteer at heart. His generosity goes above and beyond. He has donated everything he can possibly do from his time to his money. This year our dedication goes out to one of the most caring and generous people on the Fair Association.
